THE No. 276.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

WEDNESDAY, Auguſt 8, 1750.

Concluſion of the Bill, entituled, An Act for the better Encouragement of Learning within this Province, which was begun in our laſt.

AND for the better and certainer Education of Youth, It is hereby further Declared and Enacted, That the firſt Maſter for the ſaid King William's School, after the ſaid —— Day of ——, ſhall be a Perſon well Skilled in the Greek and Latin, and who hath taken a Degree of Maſter of Arts in the ſaid Univerſity of Oxford; and that the Uſher for the ſame School, or lower Maſter, ſhall be learned in the Greek and Latin and Claſſical Authors, and who hath taken the Degree of Batchelor of Arts in the ſaid Univerſity of Oxford; and Both recommended by the Vice-Chancellor of the ſaid Univerſity for the Time being. And that the firſt Maſter of the ſaid —— School, after the ſaid —— Day of ——, ſhall be a Perſon well Skilled in the Greek and Latin, and who hath taken a Degree of Maſter of Arts in the ſaid Univerſity of Cambridge; and that the ſecond Maſter or Uſher, ſhall be well Skilled in the Greek and Latin, and Claſſical Authors, and who hath taken a Degree of Batchelor of Arts in the ſaid Univerſity of Cambridge: Both to be recommended by the Vice-Chancellor of the ſaid Univerſity for the Time being. And that there ſhall be in the ſaid King William's School, and the ſaid —— School, after the Time aforeſaid, One Maſter to each School well Skilled in the Engliſh Tongue, Writing, Arithmetic, and the Mathematics, who ſhall Teach Reading Engliſh, Writing, Arithmetic, Merchants Accounts, Surveying, Navigation, Gaugirg, Fortification, Gunnery, or ſuch Branches of Mathematical Learning, as the Scholars ſhall be Apt for, or they the ſaid Maſters ſhall be from time to time inſtructed to do.

And be it Enacted, by the Authority, Advice and Conſent aforeſaid, That the Two head Maſters in the ſaid King William's School, and —— School, ſhall, out of the Monies arifing by this Act for Support of the ſaid Schools, have and receive the yearly Salary of One hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, each, together with the Benefit of the Scholars and Claſſes which they ſhall Teach and have under their Care reſpectively in the ſaid Schools: And that the Two ſecond Maſters or Uſhers in the ſaid Schools, ſhall have and receive the yearly Salary of One hundred Pounds Sterling each, together with the Benefit and Advantage of the Scholars or Claſſes which they ſhall reſpectively Teach in the ſaid Schools: And that the Writing or Engliſh Maſters in the ſaid Schools, ſhall have and receive the yearly Salary of Fifty Pounds Sterling each, together with the Benefit of the Scholars which they ſhall reſpectively Teach in the Schools aforeſaid.

And it is further Declared and Enacted, That no Maſter of the ſaid Schools ſhall, while they continue ſuch, officiate in any Church-Living within this Province; and that the ſaid Maſters ſhall, before they are admitted to Teach in the ſaid Schools, take the ſeveral Oaths to the Government by Law directed, Repeat and Sign the Teſt, before ſome Juſtice of the Peace within this Province, and produce to the Rector, and Viſitors of ſuch reſpective School, a Certificate thereof, from the Juſtice before whom the ſame was done, which the ſaid Rector and Viſitors ſhall order to be entered among their Proceedings. And for the better and more commodious Living of the ſaid Maſters, the Viſitors of each School ſhall aſſign to ſuch Maſters, proper Houſes and Lodging in the Buildings belonging to the ſaid Schools reſpectively: And in order that ſuch Buildings, as well for the Schools as Habitation of the ſaid Maſters, may be Erected and Compleated;

It is hereby further Enacted, That the Money arifing by or from the Sales of the Lands and Chattels belonging to the County Schools, ſhall be paid to, and applied by, the ſaid Rector, Governors and Viſitors of either School reſpectively, to build ſuitable and proper Houſes for ſuch Schools, as alſo for the Habitation of the ſaid Maſters, with neceſſary Offices, Gardens and Yards, as to them the ſaid Rector, Governors and Viſitors ſhall ſeem beſt for the Advantage of the ſaid Schools, ſo that all ſuch Buildings ſhall be of Brick or Stone, well ſhingled Hip Roofs, and but one Story high, and all Paling to be of good Locuſt and Cedar Poſts, good Rails of Cheſnut or Oak, and good Cheſnut or ſawed Poplar or beſt Turpentine Pine Pales clear of Sap: And that the reſpective Rectors, Governors and Viſitors of the ſaid King William's and —— Schools, ſhall yearly and every Year lay before the General Aſſembly of this Province, a State of their Accounts and Tranſactions in relation to the ſaid Schools, for their controul, approbation and direction. And to avoid the inconvenience that may ariſe by too many and mixed Boys or Scholars being together, the Rector, Governors and Viſitors of each reſpective School, are hereby obliged and directed, to order the Buildings to be ſo diſpoſed and contrived, that each of the Maſters in the reſpective Schools, ſhall have a Room ſufficiently large for the number of Scholars to be by him Taught and Inſtructed, That is to ſay, Three Rooms to each School reſpectively, and to be ſo near and contiguous, as not to incommode each other, and ſhall and may be denominated Firſt, Second and Third Schools, and built after the Form and Dimenſions which the General Aſſembly ſhall hereafter direct, order and appoint.

Provided always, and it is the true intent and meaning of this Act, That as the Maſters yearly Salaries of King William's School, are directed to be paid out of the Money arifing in virtue of this Act, that only ſo much of the ſaid Salaries ſhall be paid as are deficient in the Funds already belonging to the ſaid School, to wit, the Donation of the Honourable Benedict Leonard Calvert, Eſquire, but that the Remainder of the ſaid Salaries appointed by this Act, after the Payment of the Maſters aforeſaid, ſhall, by the Rector, Governors and Viſitors, be applied to the neceſſary Uſes of the ſaid King William's School, ſubject to the controul and direction of the General Aſſembly as aforeſaid: And that the Rectors, Governors or Viſitors of either of the ſaid Schools, ſhall not increaſe the Salaries of the Maſters of either School, at any Time, without the direction of the General Aſſembly firſt had and obtained, by Act or Ordinance thereof.

Provided alſo, That in Caſe of the Death, caſual Removal, or other Accident happening the firſt Maſter of either of the ſaid Schools, whereby the School ſhall be deprived of ſuch Maſter, That in Caſe the ſecond Maſter in ſuch School is capable of Teaching the Scholars and Claſſes in ſuch firſt School, that then and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch ſecond Maſter ſhall, by the Rector, Governors and Viſitors, be advanced to the Place of firſt Maſter, and have and receive the ſame Salary and Advantage as a firſt Maſter hath by this Act; any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding. And the Rector, Governors and Viſitors of ſuch School ſhall, and they are hereby directed and impowered to apply to the Vice-Chancellor of either Univerſity of Oxford or Cambridge, as the Caſe may require, for one or more Maſter or Maſters, qualified for the occaſion of ſuch reſpective School as aforeſaid, and ſhall in the mean Time ſupply ſuch Vacancy in the beſt manner which to them ſhall appear for the Advantage of ſuch School reſpectively.

And inaſmuch as ſo uſeful and neceſſary an End, cannot be attained without a Fund to eſtabliſh and ſupport the ſame;

Be it likewiſe Enacted, That the following Impoſts and Duties, ſhall be paid for the Goods and Commodities herein-after mentioned, by the Perſons exporting the ſame, at the Time of ſuch Exportation, to the reſpective Naval Officers of this Province, who are hereby impowered and directed to receive the ſame, to and for the Uſes in this Act mentioned: That is to ſay, For every Hogſhead or Quantity of a Hogſhead of Tobacco, the Sum of —— Sterling; For every Ton of Iron the Sum of —— Sterling; For every Thouſand Pipe Staves and Heading, the Sum of —— Sterling; For every Thouſand Hogſhead Staves and Heading the Sum of —— Sterling; For every Thouſand Barrel Staves and Heading, and every Thouſand Shingles, the Sum of —— Sterling; and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Number; For every Buſhel of Wheat, Beans or Peaſe, the Sum of —— Sterling; For every Buſhel of Indian Corn, the Sum of —— Sterling; For every Barrel of Flour the Sum of Sterling; For every Barrel of Pork the Sum of —— Sterling; For every Barrel of Beef the Sum of —— Sterling; and that the ſaid Naval Officers ſhall and may receive the ſaid Duties in the Current Money of this Province, at the Exchange which ſhall from time to time be given from the Exporter or Exporters, if they ſo chooſe to pay the ſame: And the ſaid Naval Officers are hereby obliged and directed to pay the ſaid Impoſts and Duties herein before-mentioned, to the Treaſurers of the reſpective Shores, for the Uſes of this Act, retaining to ſuch Naval Officer or Officers, a Commiſſion of —— per Centum, for his and their care and trouble, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Sum: And the ſaid Treaſurers are hereby obliged and directed to pay the ſame, That is to ſay, One Moiety of all ſuch Monies to the Rector, Governors and Viſitors of King William's School in the City of Annapolis, or their Order, and the other Moiety to the Rector, Governors and Viſitors of —— School, in —— aforeſaid, ſuch Treaſurers retaining to themſelves the Sum of —— per Centum, for their care and trouble, and ſo in Proportion for what they ſhall ſo receive and pay: And the ſaid ſeveral Naval Officers are hereby directed and required to render an Account yearly, upon Oath, by them to be taken before ſome Juſtice of the Peace within this Province, of what Money they ſhall receive and pay, ariſing by the Impoſts and Duties aforeſaid, and the ſame lay before the then next General Aſſembly of this Province: And the ſaid Treaſurers for the Time being, are hereby obliged and required, to lay before the General Aſſembly yearly, an Account of what Monies they ſhall receive, ariſing from the Impoſts and Duties aforeſaid, and how, by them reſpectively, and to whom, paid, upon Oath, to be taken as herein before directed.

And whereas the Quantity of —— Thouſand Pounds of Tobacco was heretofore levied and raiſed from the Inhabitants of this Province, That is to ſay, in the Year of our Lord God 17——, by Order of the Governor and Council, and of which no uſe hath hitherto been made, the ſame lying in the Hands of the ſeveral and reſpective Sheriffs, or their Executors or Adminiſtrators, who collected the ſame;

Be it therefore likewiſe Enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral Sheriffs who collected the ſaid Tobacco, their Sureties, Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall pay the ſaid Tobacco, or Money received in lieu thereof, if any, to the Treaſurers of the reſpective Shores of this Province; which ſaid Treaſurers are hereby obliged and directed to pay the ſame in equal Proportions; That is to ſay, one Moiety to the Rector, Governors and Viſitors of King William's School for the Time being, or their Order; and the other Moiety to the Rector, Governors and Viſitors of —— School for the Time being, or their Order; and the ſaid Rectors, Governors and Viſitors reſpectively, or the major Part of them, ſhall, and they are hereby required and directed to apply the ſame towards the building of Houſes, and other neceſſary Conveniencies, for the Uſe of the ſaid Schools reſpectively, as to them, or the major Part of them, in Convocation aſſembled, ſhall ſeem needful and advantageous, and according to the Directions of this Act: And the ſaid Treaſurers ſhall render an Account on Oath, to the General Aſſembly of this Province, of what Tobacco or Money they ſhall receive, and of whom, in Virtue hereof, and to whom the ſame ſhall be by them paid; and the ſaid Treaſurers are hereby impowered to retain for their Care and Trouble in the Premiſes, the Sum of —— per Centum, on ſuch Tobacco or Money as they ſhall receive and pay as aforeſaid, ariſing by the ſaid Pound of Tobacco per Poll.

Provided always, and it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That if upon Enquiry and Examination by the General Aſſembly of this Province, there ſhall be and remain any Overplus ariſing by the Impoſts, Duties, and Donations, given by this Act to the Uſes of the ſaid King William's School, and the ſaid —— School, more than ſhall be applied towards the Building, Erecting and Eſtabliſhing the ſaid Schools, and the Appurtenances and Conveniencies neceſſary for the ſame, and the Payment of the yearly Salary of the Maſters of the ſaid Schools, and other the incident Charges, as is by this Act directed, limited and appointed; that then and in ſuch Caſe the Overplus of all ſuch Moneys, whether in the Hands of the ſeveral and reſpective Naval Officers, or Treaſurers of this Province, ſhall, and is hereby Enacted and declared to be applied to the Uſes of the Public of this Province by the General Aſſembly thereof, for and towards the public Expences and Debts of the ſaid Province, as to ſuch General Aſſembly ſhall ſeem proper, or they ſhall appoint and direct by any Act or Ordinance by them hereafter to be made; any Thing herein contained, or any other Act, Law, Statute, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided always, That one Moiety of the ſaid Impoſts, Duties, Donations and Moneys, ſo ariſing or given by this Act, equal to what ſhall be expended and laid out for the Eſtabliſhment, Erecting and Carrying on the ſaid —— School, ſhall always be paid to, and remain with the Rector, Governors and Viſitors of King William's School, to be by them applied to the Uſes and Advantages of the ſaid King William's School; notwithſtanding any former Donations, Benefactions or Advantages, which the ſaid King William's School had or ought to have; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And this General Aſſembly being deſirous to acknowlege, teſtify and perpetuate their grateful Senſe of the kind, generous and affectionate Diſpoſition of the aforeſaid Honourable Benedict Leonard Calvert to this Province, in the Donation aforeſaid, humbly pray that it may be Enacted;

And be it Enacted by the Authority, Advice, and Conſent aforeſaid, That there ſhall be taught gratis, at the ſaid King William's School, Two Boys, born in this Province, recommended by the Governor and Council of this Province for the Time being, who ſhall go through all the Claſſes of the ſaid School, and be denominated by the Name of CALVERT'S SCHOLARS; and if the Learning, Genius, Inclination and Call of ſuch two Scholars merit the ſame, ſuch two Scholars ſhall be recommended for Holy Orders in the Church of England, and ſhall be preferred to Church Livings vacant at ſuch Times within this Province, before any others, by the Governor of the ſame Province for the Time being, at ſuch Time as ſuch Scholars or Perſons ſhall be capable of executing and enjoying the ſame; and that when and as often as both or either of the ſaid Calvert's Scholars ſhall die, or depart from the ſaid King William's School, that then and in ſuch Caſe, the Governor and Council of this Province for the Time being, are hereby impowered to appoint and nominate one or two more, born as aforeſaid, in the Room and Stead of any one or two ſo dead, removed, or advanced, that the Number of Two may always remain and be on the Foundation of the ſaid King William's School, by the Name of Calvert's Scholars, to be taught, advanced and provided for as aforeſaid.

And be it likewiſe further Enacted and Declared, That no Boy or Scholar ſhall be admitted into any or either of the ſaid Firſt Schools, until he ſhall have read or gone through Tully and Horace in the Latin, and read and gone through the Greek Grammar, Homer and Theocritus in the Greek likewiſe, or ſhall be approved of by the chief or firſt Maſter; nor into any or either of the ſaid Second Schools, until he ſhall have learnt to write a good Joining-Hand, and read Engliſh; nor into any or either of the ſaid Third or Writing Schools, until he ſhall have learnt to read Engliſh, and write the twenty-four Letters of the Alphabet diſtinctly and plain.

LONDON.

May 5. By private letters from Newcaſtle, we have an account, that the Keel men ſtill refuſe to work; that they have aſſembled to the number of 6000 and upwards; and that in one of their meetings they had been ſo audacious as to proclaim the pretender: Since which, ſome of the ringleaders have been apprehended; a reward of £. 100 has been proclaimed for that purpoſe; and other proper meaſures have been taken to quell this riot.

The following remarkable ſtory is tranſmitted in a letter from Coventry. One day laſt week, a gentleman riding along the road, by the ſide of a wood, his dog, who had ranged a ſmall diſtance from him, ſet up ſo remarkable a howling noiſe, that he turned his horſe out of the road, to ſee what occaſioned it; where he found him ſtanding by the body of a young woman, who appear'd to be newly murder'd. He called off his dog, and determined to acquaint them at the next town with the accident. He had not rode far before the dog ran forwards, as if upon a ſcent, and at ſome diſtance before him, he perceived him ſeize upon a man; he rode up, took off his dog, and expreſſed much concern for the man, told him he would ſend for a ſurgeon to dreſs his wound at the next town, and give him ſomething to make him amends. They put up at the firſt inn, went into a room, and then the gentleman ſtept out as to order a ſurgeon, but ſent for a conſtable. When he came, the gentleman told him, he charged him with that man upon ſuſpicion of murder. Sir, ſays the conſtable, I fancy you muſt be miſtaken; I know this man very well, and believe him to be as honeſt a man as any in the pariſh. However, upon ſearching him, a bloody handkerchief was found, upon which the conſtable immediately cry'd out, that handkerchief is my daughter's, whom I ſent this morning to pay forty ſhillings. Then, ſays the gentleman, your daughter is murdered, and lies in ſuch a wood. Theſe circumſtances, ſo ſtrangely diſcovered, ſo amazed and confounded the man, that he confeſſed the murder, and was committed to Coventry goal.

NEW-YORK, July 16.

Laſt Friday morning arrived here the brigantine, Charming Molly, Capt. Vardil, in 42 days from the bay of Honduras, from whence he ſailed in company with Capt. Heyſham, and Capt. Roſs, both of this port, and Capt. Tucker of Bermuda. By him we have advice, That a Spaniſh galley, of two 9 pounders, and 14 ſwivel guns, with 30 oars, and 123 men, from the Havanna, had paid thoſe parts a viſit, and on the 6th of May, had taken a tender belonging to Capt. Heyſham, as ſhe was coming from New-River. The tender killed one of the Spaniards, and wounded ſix more, before ſhe ſtruck, and the Spaniards killed one of the men afterwards:——The latter end of May, the galley came off the bay, and took Capt. Kattur, in a ſhip from Philadelphia; on board of whom they put 12 men, and ſent her with her Captain, and 8 of his men, with three women paſſengers, to the Havannah, after taking out eight of Capt. Kattur's men:——The baymen then fitted out a privateer, and went after the galley, and on the 7th of June they came up with her; but ſhe did not care to ſtand trial; and thereupon quitted Capt. Heyſham's tender, and made off, after throwing 4 carriage guns overboard, which they had put on board her, to uſe her as a conſort. The 8th of June, as Capt. Vardil was on his way home, in company with Capt. Heyſham, he ſaw the galley at anchor under the land; on which he and Capt. Heyſham, made after her; but ſhe immediately weigh'd anchor, and run for it: Soon after Capt. Vardil ſeeing a ſmoak on ſhore, on a maroon key, ſent his boat armed, and brought off nine of Capt. Heyſham's men, with eight of Capt. Kattur's, which the Spaniards had ſet on ſhore there, without victuals or water.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.

From Lewes there is advice, that a perſon is in goal there, for the murder of three men and a boy, that belonged to a veſſel he was maſter of; That they belonged to South-Carolina, and were bound to Providence; but miſſing it, came upon this coaſt, and wanting proviſions, &c. the captain was for going into Virginia, and the people wanted to make for our Capes; whereupon a quarrel enſued between the maſter and the man at the helm, in which the man was thrown over-board, and drowned; he then, for fear of being diſcover'd, ſerv'd the other two men in the ſame manner; the boy he ſpared till he came within the Capes, and then diſpatched him. After all this he ſtove two or three pipes of wine he had on board, ſtrowed ſome dry goods about the veſſel, and went aſhore in the boat: and meeting with ſome people, told them he had been taken by a pyrate, who had uſed him very ill, and deſired they would go off, and bring in his veſſel. They accordingly went off, and brought her in (in which time he made off into the woods) but finding a great deal of blood on the deck, and the man gone, imagining what had happen'd, went immediately after him, and took him, when he attempted to cut his throat, but was prevented, ſtabb'd himſelf in ſeveral places with a knife, and is in ſuch a condition, that it is doubtful whether he will recover.

ANNAPOLIS.

One Day laſt Week, as a Sailor was ſculling a Boat in Potowmack River in Charles County, the Oar ſlipp'd out of the Notch, and he fell overboard and was drowned.

And a Planter paddling a Canoe to one of the Inſpecting-Houſes, in that County, fell out and was drowned.

Laſt Monday Morning a very large well built Barn, full of Wheat, belonging to Mr. Robert Bradley, near Upper-Marlborough, was burnt down to the Ground; ſuppoſed to be occaſioned by ſome run-away Negro that had ſlept in it, and fired it with his Pipe.

On Sunday laſt, as a Servant Man of Mr. Swan's was walking along the Street in this City, he fell down in a Fit, and never ſpoke, but died a few Hours after.
